

HISTORIC PEPPER DISTILLERY DISTRICT

The Pepper Distillery District is a 25-acre entertainment district in downtown Lexington, KY, on the grounds of the historic James E. Pepper Distillery – a National Historic Landmark. Originally built in 1869, the distillery ceased production in 1958 and was abandoned for over 50 years. Since then the blighted property and surrounding area have undergone a revitalization as part of a community redevelopment and collaboration amongst independent local entrepreneurs. A vibrant and thriving destination, visitors can enjoy working distilleries, a brewery, restaurants, bars, gourmet ice cream & coffee, and more.
